

R4.Architecture, LLC

Rodney B. Strohl, Associate AIA

Vice President

Education	Bethlehem Area Vocational Technical School; Bethlehem, PA Graduated 1984
Professional Societies	American Institute of Architects - AIA Pennsylvania Member International Code Council Member NFPA
Community Affiliations	Board Member Catasauqua Youth Athletic Association (1997-2012) Vice President Catasauqua Youth Athletic Association (1999-2002) President Catasauqua Youth Athletic Association (2002-2007) Suburban Youth Football League Representative (2000-2012) Catasaquua Youth Athletic Association Football Coach (1997-2012) Lehigh Career and Technical Institute - Occupational Advisory Council (2010-Present)
Experience	TRO Jung/Brannen Boston, Massachusetts Contract Construction Administrator (July 2006 - 2014) Responsible for providing on site construction administration services for multiple construction projects, functioning as local contact, providing oversight for the Architect of Record and working with facility and construction management firms through the full course of construction activities to final occupancy. Howard Kulp Architects P.C. Allentown, Pennsylvania Project Manager (July 2006 - July 2012) Responsible for management of multiple concurrent projects in all aspects of the design, construction and renovation process including: Schematic Design and Planning, Design Development, Contract Documentation and Construction Administration. Buckl Architects Easton, Pennsylvania Project Manager (2001 - 2006) Work in architectural firm involving a range of projects, specializing in health care facilities. Responsible for management of multiple concurrent projects in all aspects of the design, construction and renovation process including: Schematic Design and Planning, Design Development, Contract Documentation and Construction Administration. Northampton County Housing Authority Nazareth Pennsylvania Section 8 Housing Authority Inspector (1999 - 2001) The Architectural Studio Easton / Allentown, Pennsylvania Senior Associate, (June 1984 - October 2001) Work in architectural firm involving many diverse projects ranging from multi-million dollar commercial facilities to small-scale residential additions and renovations. Responsible for individual and teamwork in all aspects of the design process including: Schematic Design and Planning, Design Development, Contract Documentation, and Construction Administration.
Teaching Experience	Northampton Area Community College Bethlehem, Pennsylvania Adjunct Faculty Member Digital Production Drawing (2002 - 2015)